

PANAMA | A SOPHISTICATED NEW WEAVE FOR PANAMA

One of our most beloved collections just got more lovable. PANAMA, by Richard Frinier, reconciles the classic and the contemporary in a design best described as timeless. Now, in addition to its elegantly understated original woven pattern, the collection boasts an innovative new weave that evokes the rich texture and warmth of fabric. Available exclusively in elegant Ecrú, the weave consists of a mix of fibers in different shades, sizes and profiles. Developed by DEDON's master weavers, it is a pattern so intricate that it appears almost random at first. Gaps created by the different sizes of fiber give the weave a freshness, breathability and overall look that is evocative of the Caribbean. With its timeless good looks and breezy sophistication, the new PANAMA in Ecrú takes the art of outdoor living to the next level.
